SABBATH

January 11, 2020

"When Jesus said, 'Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy burdened', He assumed we would grow weary, discouraged, and disheartened along the way. These words are a touching testimony to the genuine humanness of Jesus. He had no romantic notion of the cost of discipleship. He knew that following Him was as un sentimental as duty, as demanding as love."

Church in Action

Our Flowers Today are in memory of Ron Ermshar and the profound legacy that he has left. We will never fully know, until we are swapping stories in heaven, all the lives that Ron has impacted over the years. His quiet generosity, his commitment to helping people (especially women and children) find affordable and safe new beginnings, and his passion for financially accessible Adventist Christian education are just a few windows into the heart and the soul of this incredible man. He was loved and appreciated and he is missed every single day. Even so, Come Lord Jesus!

"You will know as much of God, and only as much of God, as you are willing to put into practice." ~ Eric Liddell

Church in Action

Welcome to Meadow Glade Church

Every December I dread the quiet, low-key, boring month of January. And every January, I find myself enjoying that same quiet, low-key, boringness that I had been dreading. It can be very rejuvenating to enjoy the fresh clean house, the routine of life, and the long evenings to read a good book or catch up on your favorite TV show. It is also a great time to spend more quality time with our heavenly Father and to connect as a Church Family. I am excited that you are here to share this Sabbath morning with us!

Special Thanks

My Special Thanks goes out to Christine Wulle. How many of you noticed the gorgeous Christmas scene that she created in our main hallway display case? Did you notice that each week, the pageant changed and progressed as Mary and Joseph made their way to Bethlehem and as she went from being pregnant to having the newborn Jesus? Ministry is a very powerful, dynamic force and when we step back and use our God-ordained gifts to bless others, it is a beautiful and meaningful event! "Thank you, Christine, for blessing us through your talents and ministry. We appreciate you!"
